A stone's throw away, just 500 meters from Pererenan Beach, this villa embraces a light and bright design with a coastal soul, subtly inspired by Tulum and the Mediterranean. Each space feels thoughtfully curated yet effortlessly relaxed. Natural textures and lime-washed walls come together to create a contemporary coastal aesthetic, blending structural refinements with a fresh material palette.

Comprehensively renovated in 2024 with a full architectural and interior redesign, this four-bedroom villa in Pererenan features an open-plan kitchen, living, and dining area designed for comfort and easy flow.

What truly sets this villa apart is the balance it achieves between old and new, relaxed and refined. It is not about perfection, but about feeling. A home that feels lived-in from day one, with character shaped not by excess, but by restraint and intention.
